Professors – Your primary source of academic support is your class professor. You are strongly encouraged to proactively introduce yourself to your professors, communicate in advance if you need to miss class, participate actively during class, and go to your professor’s office hours which will most likely be virtual. If you have conflicts during office hours, ask your professor if you can set up an appointment.

Faculty Adviser – Every FY student receives an Initial Faculty Adviser, and upper-division students choose a major adviser when they declare a major. Your adviser provides suggestions and guidance on registration, course selection, careers, graduate and professional school, study abroad, fellowships, etc. Advisers can also serve as a resource if you experience academic difficulties. http://www.wlu.edu/provost/resources-for-faculty/academic-advising

Academic Deans – The academic deans provide student academic support. Contact Dean Fred LaRiviere, larivieref@wlu.edu, for the College or Dean Michael Anderson, andersonm@wlu.edu, for the Williams School. Contact Lauren Kozak, kozakl@wlu.edu, for matters concerning disability accommodations.

Math Center – https://www.wlu.edu/mathematics-department/the-math-center

Hours/Location: Undecided / Virtual

Specifics: This center is designed to tutor Math 101 and Math 102 students.

Biology, Chemistry, and Physics Study Halls

Hours/Location: (Tentative) Sunday - Thursday from 8-10PM / 3D lab in IQ Center, Science Center A202A (could end up virtual).

Writing Center – http://www.wlu.edu/writing-program/writing-center

Hours/Location: Sunday - Thursday 2-4 PM and 8-10 PM / virtual in the Fall

Specifics: The Writing Center is only open during the Fall and Winter terms. Appointments can be made online through the scheduler on the Writing Center webpage. The Writing Center offers individual tutorial assistance to students on any college writing task, from papers and lab reports in any stage of completion to resumes and application essays.

Williams School Communication Center – http://www.wlu.edu/williams-school/commcenter

Hours/Location: Sunday 6-10 PM, Monday 6-10 PM, Tuesday-Thursday 2-4 PM and 6-10 PM / virtual in the Fall.

Specifics: The Williams School Communication Center provides access to professional writing consultants versed in the particular details of writing within the disciplines of accounting, business, economics, and politics. Appointments can be made online through the scheduler on the CommCenter webpage.

Economics Help Center

Hours/Location: (Tentative) Tuesday - Wednesday 7-9PM / Likely over zoom

Specifics: This center is for Economics 100 students only.
Accounting Help Center
Hours/Location: Sunday 8-10PM / Huntley 327 (probably virtual)
Specifics: This center is for Accounting 100 students only.

Levyburn Research Desk - https://library.wlu.edu/research
Hours/Location: Sunday - Thursday from 6-10PM and Monday - Friday from 10-11AM / For Fall 2020 will only have a virtual desk.
Specifics: The Research Desk staff are trained to aid students in locating library materials, including electronic subscriptions and physical resources. Call ahead to confirm student availability.

Peer Tutors – http://www.wlu.edu/academics/academic-resources/peer-tutoring
Over 100 upper-division students serve as volunteer Peer Tutors, who are approved by faculty and trained to serve as tutors for specific classes and subjects. This is a free service. If you may need a peer tutor at any point, please request one online. Sooner is better. Over 200 matches occur each year.

Baldridge Reading & Study Strategy Program – www.baldridgerereading.com
The Baldridge Reading & Study Strategy Program is a one-week course for developing reading speed and comprehension. The program occurs virtually Sept. 21-25, 2020 with several sessions offered each day and does cost an additional fee.”

Academic Success/Executive Function Skills – www.executivefunctionmatters.com
Local learning specialist Anna Crockett offers coaching services and consulting for academic and life success on a fee-for-service basis.

Academic difficulties are sometimes related to physical or mental health issues. If you are concerned that your health may be causing academic difficulties, please make an appointment with the appropriate office in Student Health and Counseling. The Student Health Center is located in the lower level of Davis Hall. The main entrance is off the alley at the back of the building. You will need your University card to enter the Student Health Center; to make an appointment call (540) 458-8401. The Counseling Center is located on the first floor of Early-Fielding; to make an appointment call (540) 458-8590.

Student Affairs Class Deans – http://www.wlu.edu/student-life/student-services-and-support/class-deans
For non-academic issues, you are encouraged to contact the appropriate class dean: Dean Jason Rodocker, jrodocker@wlu.edu, for FY students, Dean Megan Hobbs, mhobbs@wlu.edu, for sophomores and juniors, and Dean Tammi Simpson, tsimpson@wlu.edu, for seniors.

The residential life staff is comprised of sophomore, junior and senior student leaders selected through a competitive process. Resident Advisers (RA’s) work with First-Year students in the First-Year residence halls. Community Assistants (CA’s) work with upper-division students in The Village, Woods Creek apartments and theme houses.

The Peer Counseling Program is a team of student volunteers dedicated to helping other students experiencing emotional problems. Recognizing that students often feel most comfortable talking with friends about life issues, Peer Counselors receive extensive training on how to help other students. They are not therapists, but act as friends who are knowledgeable about the kinds of emotional issues affecting students and campus resources.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities – https://www.wlu.edu/the-college/for-students/disability-accommodations

Washington and Lee University is committed to providing equal access to educational opportunities to qualified students with physical or mental disabilities, in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act. For more information, contact the Title IX Coordinator and Director of Disability Resources Lauren Kozak, Elrod Commons 212, (540) 458-4055.